

INTRODUCING IHI, THE INNOVATIVE HEALTH INITIATIVE: EUROPE'S NEW PARTNERSHIP FOR HEALTH

The Technical University of Denmark, Greater Copenhagen EU Office and Ministry of Education and Science in Denmark invite you to join the first national information event on the new EU Partnership on Health Innovation (IHI). IHI is a research and innovation partnership between the European Commission and European Health Care Industry.

IHI is expected to invest up to €2,2 bn in industry-driven, cross-sectoral health research and innovation that facilitates the creation of new products and services to prevent, intercept, diagnose, treat, and manage diseases.

PLACE AND TIME:

April 21, 2022, 10:00-13:00. DTU – Technical University of Denmark,
Anker Engelunds Vej 101, 2800 Lyngby. Meeting room M1, r3.146.

Link to location

The event will be live-streamed.

AGENDA:

10:00-10:15	Welcome &amp; introduction Jan Henrik Ardenkjær-Larsen, Head of the Department of Health Technology, Technical University of Denmark
10:15-10:35	IHI and the European health research and innovation ecosystem Tomasz Dylag, Scientific Officer, European Commission
10:35-10:55	From IMI to IHI - a personal account Jørgen Dirach, MD, MBA, FFPM, Senior Director, Global Chief Medical Office, Public-Private Partnerships
10:55-11:00	Break
11:00-11:50	IHI's Agenda and Forthcoming Calls in 2022 Speakers: Nicolas Creff, EFPIA Elisabetta Vaudano, IHI Programme Office Annika Eberstein, COCIR
12:05-12:15	Closing Jan Henrik Ardenkjær-Larsen, Head of the Department of Health Technology, Technical University of Denmark
12:15-13:00	Lunch and on-site networking

REGISTER BEFORE APRIL 8, 2022 BY USING THIS LINK

DTU Health Tech

