

GREATER COPENHAGEN
HEALTH • SCIENCE • PARTNERS

Greater Copenhagen Health Science Partners Research & Innovation Conference 2025

- Excellent Innovation requires Excellent Research

5th of December, 2025 at Rigshospitalet, Auditorium 1.

Moderator: Journalist Nynne Bjerre Christensen

Programme

8.30 – 9.00	Arrival
9.00 – 9.05	Welcome Director Greater Copenhagen Health Science Partners, Professor Ruth Frikke-Schmidt MD.
9:05-9:25	Innovation District Copenhagen – the University of Copenhagen Perspective Prorector University of Copenhagen, Professor Eva Hoffmann.
9:25 - 9:45	Innovation District Copenhagen – The University Hospital Perspective Hospital Director Rigshospitalet, Rasmus Møgelvang.
9:45 – 10:05	How are the 27 CAGs adding value in the Innovation District Copenhagen – now and in the future? Director Greater Copenhagen Health Science Partners, Clinical Professor Ruth Frikke-Schmidt.
10:05-10:45	Coffee & Networking
10:45 -11:15	Key learnings from the King's College – the ecosystem needed to deliver Innovation Professor Sebastien Ourselin FREng FMedSci, Assistant Principal (Innovation), Head of School, School of Biomedical Engineering & Imaging Sciences, Professor of Healthcare Engineering, LIHE.
11:15-11:30	Q & A
11:30-12:00	Excellent Innovation requires Excellent Research Chair CAG-ATMP: Accelerating Clinical Integration of Cell and Gene Therapies, Clinical Professor Inge Marie Svane, Herlev-Gentofte Hospital.
12:00-12:05	Q & A
12:05 13:00	Lunch & Networking

13:00-13:15	BII in Innovation District Copenhagen – the Industry Perspective Chief Business Officer Trine Bartholdy, Bio Innovation Institute (BII).
13:15-14:00	Panel Discussion: How do we best design an ecosystem for impact on patientcare? Participants: CBO Trine Bartholdy, BII, Assistant Principal Professor Sebastien Ourselin, King's College London, Research Director Professor Malene Fischer, Rigshospitalet, Clinical Professor Henning Bundgaard, Rigshospitalet, Head of Research Kirsten Ohm Kyvik, Region Zealand.
14:00- 14:30	Celebration – new 2025 CAGs! Short presentations by the new CAGs CAG WHIP Women's Health in a Life Course Perspective Chair: Professor Henriette Svarre Nielsen, Hvidovre Hospital. Vice Chair: Professor Majken Karoline Jensen, University of Copenhagen. CAG DIGITAL Digital Phenotyping for Home-based Treatment and Care Chair: Professor Jakob Bardram, DTU. Vice Chair: Professor Thea Kølsten Fischer, Nordsjællands Hospital. CAG ATMP Accelerating Clinical Integration of Cell and Gene Therapies Chair: Professor Inge Marie Svane, Herlev Hospital. Vice Chair: Professor Sine Reker Hadrup, DTU. CAG PRECISE-IBD Precision Medicine and Prognostic Stratification in Inflammatory Bowel Disease Chair: Professor Johan Burisch, Hvidovre Hospital. Vice Chair: Professor Torben Hansen, University of Copenhagen. CAG HOME Chair: Professor Christian Sylvest Meyhoff, Bispebjerg and Frederiksberg Hospital. Vice Chair: Associate Professor Boris Düdder, University of Copenhagen. CAG VAX Translational Vaccine Research in High-Risk Adults Chair: Professor Zitta F. B. Barrella Harboe, Nordsjællands Hospital. Vice Chair: Professor Lea Klingenberg Barfod, University of Copenhagen.
14:30-15:00	Coffee and Networking
15:00-15:30	How can we strengthen The Danish Health and Life Science Research and Innovation Eco System in the Nordics, in Europe, and in the World? Professor Liselotte Højgaard, University of Copenhagen, Rigshospitalet, & DTU, ERC Vice-President elect.
15:30 -15:45	Q and A
15:45	Closing remarks Greater Copenhagen Health Science Partners Director, Professor Ruth Frikke-Schmidt MD.